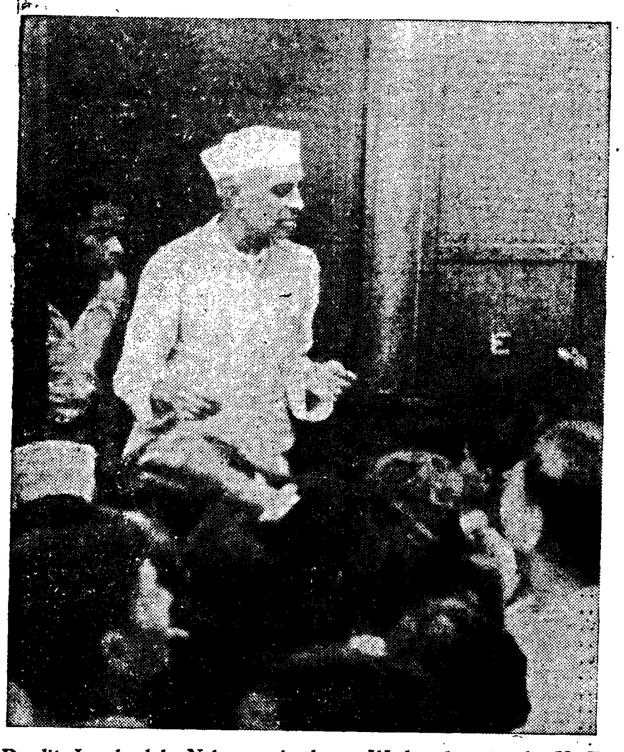
ARABS WILL RESIST TRUMAN 'DIKTAT'

PRESIDENT-ELECT OF CONGRESS



Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru arrived on Wednesday at the V. T. Station by Punjab Mail at 6-20 p.m. to attend the A. I. C. C. meeting to be held on 6th & 7th.

Curfew Extended To More Areas

SEQUEL TO STRAY STABBING CASES IN AHMEDABAD

Leaders Not Prepared To Risk Recall Of Police & Military

AHMEDABAD, July 3. (A.P.I.): The improvement noticed as a result of the strict enforcement of Curfew continued until late tonight, and throughout the day no incidents were reported from the areas under Curfew, writes the special correspondent of the Associated Press of India.

In the non-Curfew areas like Jamalpur and other suburbs of the city, however, eight cases of stray stabbing occurred which marred the general tone of improvement. These areas were subsequently brought under Curfew.

HOME MINISTER'S HOPE

Summing his reaction at the end of the series of day-long conferences with leading citizens and officials, the Home Minister, Mr. Morarji Desai, said: "You have seen what we are doing. I hope the situation will now improve."

Mr. Desai is leaving by air for Poona to-morrow.

Responding to the suggestions made by leading citizens, the District authorities have decided to relax the curfew to-morrow for three hours between 8 and 11 a.m. to enable people to go about and buy food and other essentials of life. All the four hundred ration shops in the city have been instructed to keep themselves open for this purpose. Until a late hour in the evening broadcast vans were publicising this in various parts of the city.

CITY'S LIFE AT STANDSTILL

Efforts are being made to resume the municipal services in the city which were at a standstill the whole of to-day. Ahmedabad had hardly recovered from the bad effect of the sweepers' strike which ended earlier in the week when the present disturbances broke out.

Driving through the city to-day one found dirt accumulated in very many places. In the localities where rioting had taken place there is a good deal of dbris. The municipal authorities intend to muster enough men by to-morrow and hope to get them to work under police projection.

One hundred and thirty thousand mill workers in the city which is an important textile centre in Bombay Presidency are also idle since yesterday.

Victims of the three-day disturbances over two hundred of them, still undergoing treatment in the Civil and Wadilal Hospitals are a sordid sight. Most of the persons have stab wounds or injuries from brickbats or soda-water bottles.

A doctor, however, told the Press only 10 per cent of the cases might prove to be serious.

HOME MINISTER MEETS LEADERS

Leaders of Hindu and Muslim communities in Ahmedabad who were summoned by the Home Minister, Mr. Morarjee Desai, to a joint conference this afternoon pledged their fullest co-operation in restoring peace and order in the city.

As a result of the Home Minister's appeal, a Committee of 21 leading citizens—ten Hindus, ten Muslims and one Parsi was set up to go round the city in an endeavour to pacify the citizens and restore confidence.

For over three hours this evening the Home Minister accompanied by the members of the Committee drove round the city visiting the various places where there were disturbances yesterday. The Home Minister also visited the hospital in the city where the injured are being treated.

"PEACE OF GRAVE"

Mahatma Gandhi referred to the situation in Ahmedabad at the prayer meeting today. Gandhiji stated that the latest report was that the situation was well in hand. Shri Morarji Desai had invited the representatives of Muslims, Hindus and others to a joint conference at Ahmedabad and had told them that he was prepared to withdraw the police and military if they so desired.

But the latter, it is reported, had unanimously replied that they were not prepared to take the risk.

The result was the police and military were there. The authorities had promulgated a curfew order for three days to be enforced day and night. Therefore, although as a result the disturbances had been arrested, the peace that was seen in Ahmedabad today was the peace of the grave.

It was something of which no one could be proud. How he wished that both the Hindus and Muslims would combine and dispense with the help

Bombay Welcomes Jawaharlal

Scenes Of Terrific Crush And Confusion At V. T.

WELCOMED BY THE USUAL MASS OF MILLING, JOSTLING, CHEERING HUMANITY, PANDIT JAWAHARLAL NEHRU, PRESIDENT-ELECT OF THE CONGRESS, ARRIVED IN BOMBAY BY THE PUNJAB MAIL ON WEDNESDAY EVENING.

The Bombay Provincial Congress Committee which accorded him a public reception had provided a jeep a vehicle for which Pandit Nehru had expressed a partiality on an earlier occasion—in which he rode through the waiting multitude who flung garlands and bouquets at him.

Despite very elaborate and careful preparations made by the B.P.C.C. scenes of terrific crush and confusion caused by the desire of ten thousand people wanting to occupy the same space at the same time, were witnessed at the Victoria Terminus where he arrived.

The Punjab Mail by which Pandit Nehru travelled was late almost by two hours. Mr. S. K. Patil, President of the B.P.C.C., Mr. S. L. Silam, the Secretary, Mr. Nagindas T. Master, Mr. Ratilal Gandhi, Mr. Bhiwanji Arjun Khimji, Mr. Nathalal Parekh and other local Congress leaders were present at the station. So too was Pandit Nehru's sister, Mrs. Krishna Hutheesingh; his Secretary, Mr. Upadhyaya, and Col. Bhonsle and Mr. S. A. Iyer of the I.N.A.

Following the advice of the Railway authorities who, it is understood, asked the B.P.C.C. that Pandit Nehru's boggie would halt 273 feet from the engine, a wide area was kept clear. A jeep belonging to a businessman, who has purchased a number of them from the army surplus, was kept at a spot, where it was presumed, Panditji would alight. A strong cordon of volunteers and Desh Sevikas was thrown to keep the area free from crush.

CONFUSION

But the train drew up slowly and as the workers stood aghast, it drew past the spot and went ahead. Mrs. Hutheesing jumped onto the footboard of the moving train to greet her brother. Then followed utter confusion. The jeep was partly backed to the door of Pandit Nehru's compartment, but it could not be taken the whole way without riding over the solid mass of humanity. Then Panditji got down and protected by a hastily thrown cordon of volunteers, pushed his way to the jeep. By the time Pandit got into the jeep, tired, vexed and perspiring, all cordons had broken and it was a struggle of each one against every other. It was with the greatest difficulty that the jeep drove clear of the shouting people and left the platform strewn with garlands which were meant for the President-elect, lying promiscuously alongside chappals and footwear torn from legs which could not hold them in the crush.

Pandit Nehru, however, spent only a few hours in the city and left for Poona by the Night Passenger. After meeting Gandhiji he is returning to Bombay by today (Thursday) evening.

OTHER ARRIVALS

Arrived in the city on Wednesday was also Acharya J. B. Kripalani, General Secretary of the Congress. He came by air from Allahabad. He was met at the Santa Cruz Aerodrome by Mr. Purshottam Thakkar, Joint Secretary of the Bombay Provincial Congress Committee.

Mrs. Sarojini Naidu will arrive in Bombay today by the Frontier Mail. On Friday three members of the Working Committee, Dr. Pattabhi Seetaramiah, Dr. Prafulla Chandra Ghosh and Mr. Shankerrao Deo are coming. The Congress President, Maulana Azad and Mr. Harekrishna Mehtab will arrive on Saturday. It is likely that the Working Committee of the Congress will meet on Friday. Babu Rajendra Prasad and Kham Abdul Gaffar Khan are not coming.

Arrangements for the holding of the A.I.C.C. meeting as well as housing its members are now complete. They will be lodged at the Marwari Vidyalaya Hall, Sandhurst Road, and at the Marwadi Commercial High School at Gazdar Park, Girgaum.

Dr. Roy Prescribes Month's Rest For Azad

CALCUTTA, July 3, (U.P.I.): Dr. B. C. Roy who examined Congress President Maulana Azad yesterday has issued the following statement: "I have this day examined Maulana Azad, President of the Indian National Congress. His health has been generally undermined due to overwork and lack of rest. It is essential to my mind that he should at the earliest opportunity take complete rest for one month in a quiet place free from all worries and responsibilities."

KASHMIR TALKS IN CITY

Premier Kak To Meet Congress Leaders

SRINAGAR, July 2 (A.P.I.): Rai Bahadur Ramachandra Kak, Prime Minister of Kashmir, is leaving by air tomorrow (Wednesday) morning for Bombay. He is expected to halt at Bhopal for a short time to meet the Nawab of Bhopal, Chancellor of the Chamber of Princes.

It is learnt that while in Bombay the Prime Minister might see Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel and if possible, Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, the Congress President, to discuss the present political situation in Kashmir, arising out of the recent "Quit Kashmir" agitation.

It is learnt that His Highness the Maharaja of Jammu and Kashmir has replied to the letters he received from Maulana Abul Kalam Azad and Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru.

WHY KAK COMES TO BOMBAY

It is learnt from reliable sources that both Maulana Abul Kalam Azad and Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel are concerned about the ban now in force against Pt. Nehru's entry into Kashmir and both have suggested that this may be removed. The Kashmir Government acquainted the Congress leaders with the version of the events, leading to the imposition of the ban against Pt. Nehru's entry.

Sardar Patel, it is learnt, suggested that a meeting between him and the Prime Minister would be helpful and Bombay was decided as venue of the meeting in view of Sardar Patel's engagements there in connection with the A.I.C.C. meeting.

"Anti-Indian Bill Includes Both You And Me"

DURBAN, July 3, (From Our Correspondent)

Mr. Benny Sischy, Secretary of the Council of Asiatic Rights and a European sympathiser of the passive resisters, was fined £ 15 by the Durban Magistrate yesterday for taking part in the Satyagraha movement.

Mr. Sischy refused to pay the fine. In a statement to the court, he said: "I as a member of the European community of South Africa. I feel deep resentment at the recent promulgation of the Asiatic Land Tenure and Indian Representation Act. I feel it is a violation of all South Africans who fought in the war against Fascism. As a South African I abhor hatred which is fostered between various races by such oppressive legislations. I feel this an outright violation of all democratic principles to segregate Indian people into Ghettoes obstruct social and economic development and deny them the most elementary right to live."

Addressing the Magistrate, Mr. Cohen, Mr. Sischy said: "The act is an insult to all Asiatic peoples and it includes you and me, Sir, as members of the Jewish community, although the act expressly excludes the Jewish people from being regarded in the Asiatic group.

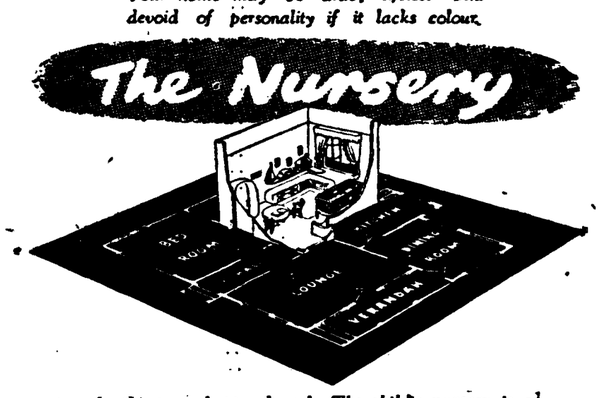
COLOUR AND YOUR HOME NO. 3

Your home may be drab, lifeless and devoid of personality if it lacks colour.



Anything can happen here! The child's nursery is a kingdom all of his own, even though in some measure, planned for the mother's well-being.

A nursery should be bright and colourful but avoid a riot of colour and excitement which may harmfully stimulate young children. Unless you plan to redecorate every year, avoid the monotony of murals depicting bunnies bouncing and skipping lambs.

Here are some colour suggestions for a...

DULL NURSERY: If the floor is "chip" china (so many old floors are in India) paint the walls, woodwork and fans, creamy light yellow. If the general lighting is poor, paints with a glossy finish have light-reflecting qualities. Pick out the predominant colour in the china floor, blue for instance, and lacquer the furniture in a paler blue of the same shade. Pale green would look just as well with cream-yellow walls.

Paint accessories: baby basket — picture frames — scales — doll's bed — bright shrimp pink.

SUNNY NURSERY: If the floor is red which gives the impression of more heat, cover it entirely with a floor-cloth or linoleum in blue, bordered with red. No odd rugs or the child will skid and fall. Paint the walls, woodwork and fans, light Alice blue. The ceiling, the same but a small border or motif can be introduced if desired, combining white and red. Lacquer the furniture and accessories white.

The time has come when we are producing a steady output of colours suitable for all decorating purposes.

Colour Fundamentals

noisy stimulating active
cheering

Warm colours are advancing and focus objects to seem nearer. While making individual objects seem larger, they blend and unite groups.

COOL COLOURS
restful soothing
aloof

Cool colours are reducing, and focus objects to seem farther away. While making individual objects seem smaller, they tend to separate and break up groups.

A combination of purple and yellow will focus normally.

KEEPING INDIA WITHIN EMPIRE

Daily Express Criticises Cabinet's Offer

LONDON, July 3 (Reuter): The Cabinet Mission to India which has been generally praised by the British Press is severely criticised by the Conservative "Daily Express" today.

"Has it succeeded? alas' yes," says the "Daily Express." "If you set out to give everything away and if the offer is taken, then it is success of a kind. But its fruits will be bitter.

"The Indians are shown a path to get out of the Empire and are given a push along the way.

"The duty of the Cripps' delegation was above all to keep India within the Empire. Instead, the Indians are free to secede as soon as they set up a Government of their own."

"Why is not Dominion Status fixed as the present goal?" the "Daily Express" asks. "The new rulers of India would not lightly have abandoned it had they ever known its attractions.

The British Commonwealth is still the only working model of free partnership. An Indian, enjoying the same status as Canada or Australia would quickly have sensed that membership of the Empire is a coveted honour in peace and a buckler in war.

"BULGE BATTLE" WAS HITLER'S OWN

Runstedt Denies Hand In Last German Gamble

NUREMBERG, July 3 (A.P.A.): The battle of the bulge was not his idea but Hitler's, and he wished people would stop calling it the Runstedt offensive, the Prussian Field-Marshal told Allied interrogators, it was revealed in Nuremberg today.

The Fuehrer planned the entire campaign as it eventually evolved and Von Runstedt said he confined himself merely to passing on orders to General Alfred Jodl.

Antwerp was the objective and if established Hitler had hoped to roll back the entire French front.

The operation, Runstedt continued, was carried out with insufficient means. Hitler however never gave it a real chance because he pulled out side divisions from the bulge to meet the Red Army's break-through in the East.

ALCIDE TO FORM ANOTHER GOVERNMENT

ROME, July 3 (A.P.A.): Italy's provisional President Signor Enrico de Nicola last night told the Premier, Signor Alcide de Gasperi, to form another Government. De Gasperi agreed to do so.

The Christian Democrats' 207 seats out of 556 in the Assembly were expected to give them the lion's share of the portfolios.

The chief stumbling block appeared still to be the important ministry of the interior which all the major parties want.

It was reported that the Minister of the Treasury, Signor Epicarmio Corbinon, who recently resigned from the Liberal Party, might be retained in the Cabinet as independent expert.

WHEN BR. PREMIER WILL VISIT AUSTRALIA

CANBERRA, July 3 (Reuter).—The British Prime Minister Mr. Clement Attlee, with Mrs. Attlee will arrive in Australia on July 28 for a fortnight's visit, it is officially announced here today. Mr. Attlee will be the first British Prime Minister to visit Australia while in office.

He expects to spend three days in Canberra for discussion with Mr. Joseph B. Chiefley, the Australian Prime Minister and members of the Cabinet, and to attend at least one meeting of the Australian Parliament.

Mr. Attlee and Mrs. Attlee will then go on to New Zealand.

STRIKE BATTLE IN HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD (California), July 3 (Reuter): The strike which involves ten principal Film studios in Hollywood led to a battle today when rival union non-strikers crashed through massed picket lines at Warner Brothers Studio and also at Metro Goldwyn Mayers Studio. Armed police were called in to quell the disorders and several arrests were made.

"HIND MUNCH":

A New Dramatic Society

Signs multiply that the movement for the revival of Indian Theatre is fast gathering momentum. The latest group to take the field is the "Hind Munch."

The main object of this new group is to produce plays which are contemporary in form and possess a universality of appeal and thus encourage serious study of the varied and interrelated problems of stage-craft by bringing playwrights, actors and stage technicians into close and co-operative contact. The "Hind Munch" will make debut at the 'Sundarbai Hall' next week with the adaption in Hindustani of Gogol's famous classic "The Government Inspector."

The choice of this play, which established Gogol's reputation as a dramatist, is highly appropriate. For the Russia of Gogol's time had many things in common with present-day India. The translation of the characters and situation to the contemporary Indian scene, therefore, involves no violence to the original theme.

The "Hind Munch" will give three performances beginning with Friday the 12th June. The play is directed by Mr. Shetan Anand.

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

"Watch out for your blood pressure" is often said jokingly, but it contains a very serious warning.

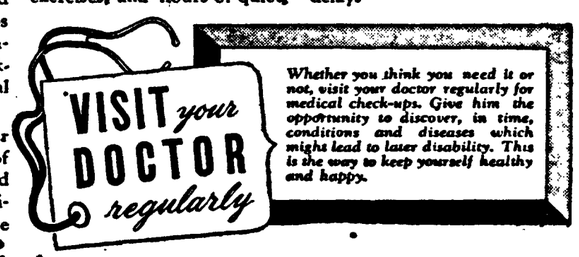
High blood pressure is one of the commonest disorders of middle age. If allowed to progress, it impairs the heart, arteries and kidneys, and inevitably results in shortened life, due to the terrific strain imposed on the heart and blood vessels. In any case, it robs life of much of its joy, impairs vitality, induces weakness, fainting and continual fatigue.

Over exertion—mental or physical, the stress and strain of modern life, fear, anger and worry, continued for a sufficient length of time—these are the commonest causes of high blood pressure.

You can easily prevent the conditions causing blood pressure. Live a moderate life rather than a strenuous one. Don't get caught in the whirlwind of modern living which keeps you going faster and faster at a dizzy pace. Learn the virtues of vacations, hobbies, outdoor exercises, and hours of quiet.

if you wish to keep your blood pressure normal.

High blood pressure can be successfully treated if discovered early enough. Only through periodic examination of your health can blood pressure be spotted while the changes are still reversible. In any event, don't start treating yourself: consult your doctor without delay.



VISIT your DOCTOR regularly
Whether you think you need it or not, visit your doctor regularly for medical check-ups. Give him the opportunity to discover, in time, conditions and diseases which might lead to later disability. This is the way to keep yourself healthy and happy.

A THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

The Conditions of conquest are easy. Toil awhile. Endure awhile. Believe it always. Never look back.

The Bombay Chronicle

FUTILE TACTICS

In his message to India sent from England Lord Fethick-Lawrence studiously refrained from saying anything informative about the unfinished part of the Cabinet Mission's task, namely, the formation of an Interim Government. His hope that the Viceroy will be able to achieve this "in the early future" and that the major parties will give him every help makes one wonder if he expects the officials' Government to continue till there is agreement between the major parties or if the threat itself is intended to help agreement. If Britain is sincere about party agreement she should realise that she hardly promotes it by assuring a minority party repeatedly that without its consent the majority party will not be given any power. It is right and natural to wish for agreement among as many parties as possible. But it is wrong and unnatural to give any one minority party a veto on the formation of a representative Government. Such a veto is likely to be suspected by Indians as a 'mala fide' trick to create disagreement and then make that an excuse for retaining power in the hands of the Viceroy and a majority of subservient European officials.

The suspicion that the officials' regime may be given an indefinite lease of life is strengthened by the comments of the "Times" of London on this question. "How long", says the paper, "this unsatisfactory creation (of a Caretaker Government) will endure depends, it is clear, upon the Congress Party and upon no one else—not even upon the Viceroy and the British Cabinet." And what is the Congress asked to do to prevent the Care-taker Government from enduring indefinitely? Says the "Times": "By asserting their right to name any representatives they choose and by refraining from exercising the right to nominate a Congress Muslim on this occasion, they can preserve their country from the risk of civil strife." The "Times" recognises that "Congress has a good case in theory not only because it has Muslim adherents in the Frontier Province and elsewhere who do not approve of the League, but also because it claims to be non-communal in its outlook." So the Congress, which has a just right and obviously a duty to nationalist Muslim adherents, is asked to betray these adherents in practice, while asserting its right in theory. And why is this betrayal insisted upon? One would expect a reason involving greater justice to other interests. But no question of justice is urged. One is only told that if Congress stands on justice the League is "prepared to break on this point" and there will be "the risk of civil strife". This is fresh pampering of the League, abetting it to be prepared to break on this point"; and therein is the tendency to create the very civil strife about which anxiety is expressed. The anxiety is really to weaken the Congress, to drive all Muslims into the League's fold, to so balance the two bodies that the Viceroy may profit by their perpetuated differences. The Congress has known British imperialist tactics too well to be taken in by the advice of the "Times". It knows best how to avert civil strife and will take due steps to avert it, if only because it does not profit by such strife. Britain, on her part, may do everything possible to prevent the risk of fresh Indo-British strife sabotaging the present negotiations. Congress will not tolerate the continuance of the officials' Raj after the elections to the Constituent Assembly are over.

Racial Conflict In E. Africa

As in South Africa, in the British colonies and protectorates of East Africa, too, emigration of Indians was deliberately and actively fostered by the British Government as well as by the local administrations in these colonies in the last quarter of the last century with a view to developing their natural resources and commerce, since these could not be done efficiently by the colonial Whites even with the help of the natives of the land. But now that these territories are fairly well developed, largely through the labours of the immigrant Indian community, and have begun to yield rich harvests, the Whites, who find that Indians have not only no further exploitation-value for themselves, but are proving to be a thorn in their sides, should be kept out of their territories. The British Government, which had sponsored Indian emigration, ostensibly in the interests of all the communities engaged in the development of the colonies, but in reality in the main interests of the British and other White colonists, now professes to adopt a neutral attitude towards the treatment meted out to the Indian residents by the Whites. Such a cynical breach of faith with non-White peoples is, perhaps, nothing to be surprised at on the part of an imperialist Power which has thrived and continues to exist only because of such heartless exploitation of non-White peoples. But the days of such imperialism are numbered, because the long-exploited colonial peoples are now learning to stand on their own legs and are demanding that exploitation shall cease and that the civic and political rights so long withheld from them should be conceded to them as a matter of their birthright. The Satyagraha struggle now proceeding in South Africa will not and cannot end, whatever the sufferings that may be heaped on the Indian communities, until the god-given right of members of all non-White peoples, whether in Africa, Asia or anywhere else, to free and civilised existence, is recognised unequivocally by all the nations of the earth.

Following the evil example set by the race-arrogant Whites of South Africa, the Whites of East Africa too, who are a mere handful compared with the indigenous population and the Indian residents, have been actively engaged, during the past one decade, in systematically cheating the Indian community out of their property and trading rights and in preventing the further entry of Indians into what they regard as their own privileged reserves. Just over two decades ago the Government of Kenya introduced the thin end of a wedge, in the shape of a bill entitled "An Ordinance to consolidate and regulate immigration and employment," which if it had been placed on the statute book, would have effectively blocked the further entry of Indians into that colony. But, owing to the agitation in this country against the measure, it was dropped by the authorities in Kenya. The last War came as a god-send to the Whites of all the three territories—Kenya, Tanganyika and Uganda—in their campaign against the Indians. The three territories were brought under one administration, and under the ostensible plea of war emergency, several "Defence Regulations" were promulgated severely restricting the trading rights of Indians and placing the entire trade, commerce and industry of the territories under the control of Whites. The free entry of Indians into East Africa was also effectively blocked. Indian traders suffered enormous losses on account of these restrictions, which operated directly for the aggrandisement of their White rivals.

Though the war has ended the Regulations have not been withdrawn. They are maintained still in force, to the great detriment of Indian interests. The Joint Administration of these three territories, when pressed for the withdrawal of the Regulations, has announced that the Regulations will be withdrawn only when the new Bill, which it has recently published and which deals a death-blow to Indian interests of every kind, becomes law. A deposit of £ 75 or about Rs. 1,000 will be demanded henceforth, instead of £ 5 as at present, for the grant of any permit of residence in any of the three territories. Again, nobody with less than £ 800 can enter the territories for agricultural purposes; with less than £ 1,000 for mining and geological purposes; while for trade a minimum of £ 2,500 and for industry £ 10,000 are required. As Mr. Chitale, ex-President of Tanganyika Indian Association said the other day "Indians whose average income is among the world's lowest, will be automatically shut out of that part of Africa." Another provision makes it virtually impossible to secure a residential permit if an old resident had left East Africa prior to 31st August 1939 or has not stayed for five years in the aggregate within the last eight years from the date of application. Those, who had left under the voluntary evacuation scheme during the war, including students who had left for higher studies abroad, will be prevented from re-entering the country. Though these and other similar provisions, ostensibly apply to Europeans as well as Indians their main purpose is to shutout Indian labour and small capital and are obviously calculated to restrict the further entry of Indians into East Africa and reduce the existing residents to subservience to the White traders and planters. East Africa is not a self-governing Dominion yet. It is still under the administration of the British Colonial Office, which cannot, as in the case of South Africa, wash its hand off all responsibility for what is going on there. But one knows what to expect of the British Government, even a Labourite Government when it is a case of a choice between White and non-Whites. It is to the people and Government of India that the nationals of this country resident in East Africa are looking for succour. The least that the Government of India, constituted as it is at present, can do is to enter on emphatic protest against the foreshadowed lagislation and ask of the British Colonial Office that it should defer action till a national Government comes into existence in this country.

Frankly Speaking

Revealing Confession

India knew that in Lord Linlithgow and his colleagues—one of whom perpetrated a pamphlet on "Congress Responsibility...."—she had to endure some of the most reactionary men whom British imperialism ever inflicted on this country. They were out to suppress Indian nationalism in the country and deliberately misrepresent it abroad. Now a confession of it has come from the most important of their own agents. It is a confession by no less a person than Sir Girja Shankar Bajpai, the Indian Agent-General in Washington. It deserves fuller publicity than it has had, for it throws a flood of light on the calculated hostility and unscrupulousness with which the Linlithgow Government sought to damn India and her people in the United States and, no doubt elsewhere, too. Men like Louis Fischer and their writings were suppressed and Puckles and Ramans were let loose, financed by the money of the Indian people.

Truth Is Out

Here is what Sir Girja Shankar Bajpai said apologetically in self-defence at a meeting of the New Delhi branch of the Indian Council of World Affairs. It will bear repetition:

Referring to the criticism of the Information Service under the Administrative control of the Indian Agent-General in U.S.A., Sir Girja Shankar said: "During the troubled and angry times of 1942 and part of 1943, the Information Services of the Government of India did put out what was the Government of India's point of view in regard to the political situation here and the justification for the policy of the Government of India. That was done under instructions -directives which literally were directives- from the Government of India. But I took upon myself the responsibility of allaying and healing controversy as soon as circumstances permitted". (our italics).

In plain English, Sir Girja Shankar was literally ordered to wrong his country which he officially did, and unofficially tried to undo that same wrong. We wish Sir Girja Shankar had had the courage of obligations to his country and his maligned people and had resigned. But his confession is not without value. It exposes the Government of India and Lord Linlithgow, who in his last letter to Mahatma Gandhi had the supreme temerity to say something in a superior manner, of the ubiquitousness of truth. Truth is out.

Call To Anglo-Indians

The new path that Mr. Frank Anthony and others have chosen for their Anglo-Indian community, the path of Indian Nationalism, is the only true path for it. And we are glad to notice signs of preparations to tread it. The Anglo-Indians of Bombay had, the other day, the Premier for their guest at the annual general meeting of their association. It is a measure of changing psychology that the President paid a special tribute to Mahatma Gandhi. Even more welcome is Mr. Prater's call to his community in the following words: "The Anglo-Indian community today stood at the parting of the ways. If it is to live and find a place in India, it should identify itself with the lives and aspirations of its people." It is a call that Anglo-Indians should, in a word, regard themselves as, and become, Indians. This they owe both to themselves and to their fellow-countrymen.

Wholesome Advice

And India will not be found wanting in welcoming them with "characteristic warmth and broadmindedness." Indeed, it is already doing so. The Congress decision to have Anglo-Indians elected to the Constituent Assembly is the first symbolical indication of the place India will give to Anglo-Indians in national life. That place Anglo-Indians can, indeed, deserve, as Mr. Kher pointed out, by their own special qualities of which their country is in need. The future of the community is safe and is assured a prosperous security. But the fundamental task is orientation of life and mental attitude. Mr. Kher told them what they have to do in their own interest and how! It was wholesome advice from a genuine and wise friend. Let Anglo-Indians act up to it.

CITY'S LOSS OF FOUR LAKHS IN RIOTS

Municipality Lodges Claim For Compensation

BOMBAY, Wednesday.

The Bombay Municipality suffered an aggregate loss of Rs. 3,70,931 during the widespread disturbances in Bombay which took place in the wake of the strike of the Royal Indian Navy. The highest damage was sustained by the Hydraulic and the Workshops Departments of the Municipality, which suffered a loss of Rs. 2,49,043.

The Municipality has lodged its claim for compensation with the Chief Presidency Magistrate of Bombay, who is at present disposing of the claims arising out of the communal disturbances of October 1945, the Netaji Day rioting in January, 1946, and that which followed the R.I.N. Mutiny.

REFLECTIONS ON THE FIRST TEST AT LORDS

What Might Have Been

(From Our London Correspondent.)

LONDON, (By air mail).

Never has a Test match in which an Indian side has been concerned caused so much chatter among the experts of the game as the one recently finished at Lord's. Indeed, no Test match between any two teams, in which one was so "hopelessly beaten" as a ten wickets margin suggests, has caused so much speculation. For days after the event the people inside the game have been discussing the "might have beens". Suppose, for instance, that Hardstaff, who got half the England runs, had been bowled early on by one from Amarnath which, in the words of the bowler himself "took a coat of varnish off the leg stump".

Or again, suppose the captain of the Indian side had used one spin bowler at a much earlier stage on that vital second morning and thereby broken up a partnership which put England on the straight road to victory, would the result have been entirely different? Nobody can say, any more than anybody can stop the experts from guessing.

One more "if". Would the end of the story have been different if the Indian batsmen had reversed their tactics: if they had played their first innings like they played the second, and vice-versa', of that second innings Jack Hobbs, who ought to know seeing that he scored nearly two hundred first-class centuries before he retired, says that the Indians played one-day cricket in a three-day match. That may be an accurate summary in a few words, but there is something else at least as true, and maybe more important, on which everybody taking part in the "inquest" is agreed. It is that by playing as they did the Indians lost the match, but won something worth while—many more friends than they would have made if successive batsmen had put up the shutters and stone-walled their way to a boring draw. Cricketers who are entertainers may lose matches in giving the entertainment. But an Indian party which does not forget the entertainment makes as sure as anything reasonably can be that at the end of the tour the word success shall sum up the trip.

* * * *

"Handlebars"—which is the pet name given to better than anything England possess at the moment wicket-keeper Hindlekar—is the proud owner of a souvenir of a Test match which will long be remembered. The ball was returned to him after the winning hit was made: and he stuck to it just as he did to every other ball which came to him during the long England innings. One of the umpires made an appeal for that ball, but for once it was Hindlekar who had the opportunity to turn his head away and to negative the appeal. Hindlekar tells me that he collected the ball to give it to Amarnath to keep it as a treasure for his wonderful work with the leather during the Test.

The proportion of women spectators at the Test match is a matter for surprise. "They must come to admire my good looks," said one of the Indian party, and to support this opinion he tells a story which certainly suggests that all the fair sex who attended did not know a lot about the technicalities of the game. The story, as this Indian player swears he heard it, goes on these lines. At eleven-forty on the first day that is, ten minutes after the match started—a gentleman and his two lady friends passed through the gate. The male member of the party took a quick look at the middle and remarked: "The Indians are in." Whereupon one of his lady friends put this query: "Does that mean they are batting first?" No, not even Amarnath, in one of his most destructive moods, could have hoped to dismiss the England Eleven in less than ten minutes.

Following an announcement by the "Express" Newspapers of India to give awards to Indian players making a century in the Test series, the wish is expressed that somebody will now come forward with an offer of cash reward for each six hit. Perhaps this might be considered as likely to affect tactics, but it is rather surprising that this Indian party should have gone to the third week in June without any member of it having the temerity—or the audacity—to hit a ball over the heads of the spectators. It was then fitting that Vinoo Mankad should do this in a Test Match, because English opinion subscribes to the view that he is the best all-round cricketer—and the words all round include fielding—that India has ever sent to England.

Reverting to Amarnath, there is something cooking, in his particular connection, in both the metaphorical and literal senses. Literally he is the cook of the side, often going into the kitchen at the London hotel to prepare something specially dainty for his pals about which he knows so much, and about which the cooks at the hotel know so little. Meantime, between his cooking—and bowling-spells, Amarnath is being interviewed concerning his cricket future. He will return to India when the tour is over, of course, but there is certainly a chance that he will be back in England next summer to play with one of English Saturday afternoon League sides. Several clubs are interested in his future, because Amarnath is just the type these half-day clubs are looking for: a man who can bowl the other fellows out and who can himself delight the spectators with free hitting. Learie Constantine made up to fifty pounds a week playing League cricket. Amarnath could do the same if he went to Lancashire or Yorkshire and proved a success.

It may be taken for granted that when India comes to play the second Test at Manchester there will be changes in the side. Sarwate had his birthday on the day the first Test at Lord's opened, and it was a big disappointment to him to find that he had merely been given the twelfth man's position. The question which people in close touch with the Indian party are asking is why C. S. Nayudu should have been preferred to Sarwate. We know C. S. as a useful cricketer, and as a bowler who might do things on a difficult wicket. But he played in the Lord's Test match and despite the length of the England innings, he was called upon to bowl four overs. True, the wicket might have played tricks under certain weather conditions, but for the time being there is only one source of weather prophecy on which any sort of reliance can be placed—the official forecast. And the official forecast did say that rain was some way off. Probably the Indian Captain cannot trust Air Ministry. But this time it was right.

Louis Fischer Stays With Mahatma In Poona

His Forthcoming Book "Great Challenge" Will Divulge Chiang-Roosevelt Correspondence

BOMBAY, July 3 (U.P.A.): Louis Fischer, the well-known American author and commentator, arrived here from Delhi by plane on Monday night, and is presently at Poona where he is visiting an old friend—Mahatma Gandhi.

Mr. Fischer arrived in Karachi from New York on June 25 on a four-week visit to this country "just to re-acquaint myself with India and to see Indian conditions and Indian people." He is 50 years old, and has been a foreign correspondent studying and writing world conditions for the past twenty-five years.

"I have written eleven books on World Problems", Fischer told the United Press of America. "My latest, 'The Great Challenge' will be ready for sale in America in September."

Mr. Fischer explained that the book deals with the complex problems of the war and the peace. About one-half of the book is devoted to the role of Russia in the world of today.

"There are 100 pages on India", Mr. Fischer said. "For the first time the public will be able to read in this book the letter which Mahatma Gandhi gave me in 1942 for the late President Roosevelt. The book also contains the hitherto secret telegraphic correspondence which took place between Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and Roosevelt dealing specifically with India. In fact, the existence of this correspondence has been known to only two or three people. It has never been published before."

Mr. Fischer will return from Poona to attend the A.I.C.C. meeting to be held here this week-end. He will leave India on a visit to Palestine, Turkey, Greece, Central and Western Europe where he will study conditions.

WHY BUTTER TO U.S. AND NOT BRITAIN?

New Zealand Dockers Refuse To Load It

AUCKLAND (New Zealand), July 3. (Reuter): Waterside workers here have refused to load butter for the United States in freighter "Mariposa" until Mr. Peter Fraser, New Zealand's Prime Minister, has made a full statement on Government's decision to supply American forces in the Pacific with 10,000,000 pounds of butter.

Harold Barnes, leader of New Zealand harbour workers, has declared that sale of butter to America is not reconcilable with the present world food situation.

A logical step to feed the United States forces was food rationing in Japan, to which great quantities of American foodstuffs were reported to have been shipped, he declared.

New Zealand waterside workers threatened yesterday to refuse to load butter if the United States Government did not give a satisfactory answer to their demand for "A frank statement" why the consignment was not going to Britain.

Mr. Fraser stated earlier that Britain had consented to the diversion of butter in the understanding that the United States sent an equivalent in fats to Britain.

1,000 Dock Workers On Strike

KARACHI, July 3. (API.). About a thousand dock workers employed by stevedores have gone on strike in the Keamari harbour. The strikers demand immediate increase in their wages. As a result of the strike loading and unloading has been stopped delaying some steamers due to leave Karachi port.

OUR READERS' VIEWS

Government And Pensioners

Sir,—Some time ago I had, on behalf of myself and so many other pensioners, made a representation to Government that in view of the high prices it should do something for them by giving them some dearness allowance. I had also asked Government, in the name of the pensioners, to restore to them the cut made in their salaries some 15 years ago. The requests were very reasonable, but it is a pity that the Government has not acceded to them. Here below I reproduce the reply received on behalf of Government for the information of the pensioners in general: "With reference to your and other Government pensioners' letter dated 14th May 1946, on the subject noted above, I am directed to state that Government regrets its inability to accede to the requests in the letter."

I advise the pensioners not to lose heart. I shall continue to move in the matter. For the present I am awaiting the formation of an Interim Government at the Centre and once it is done, I shall see that our grievances are placed before the same. His lead will then be automatically followed by the Provincial Government.

Happenings In Kashmir

Sir,—What heart will not feel sorry for the ugly happenings that have been reported by the press? It is not necessary to discuss the details but Heavens would not have fallen if the Ruler of Kashmir, described many years ago as "Mr. A." had extended to the visitor ordinary courtesy since his visit was going to be extremely brief. His mission was clear, viz. to see things for himself and calm the disturbed atmosphere. It is such a pity that at this particular juncture when the British Cabinet is in India—discussing and settling plans for the future governance of India by Indians that this ugly incident should have happened. This ought to illustrate to the British Cabinet a pattern of how an Indian State is governed by an Indian Prince.

Bank Of India Employees

Sir,—At the last annual general meeting of the Bank of India the shareholders had urged the management to introduce decent graded salaries to the clerks and sepoys, too. And yet, when the clerks and sepoys have raised the question of minimum salary and proper regulations—one can gather from the press—that a big hue and cry is made against conceding the minimum demands with the plea of the absence of the European Manager. Lack of precedence is also used against the employees.

Why should the bumper increments of top men be not stopped and paid to the non-covenented employees so that they, too, may live with human dignity?

STANSGATE TO RETURN TO CAIRO

To Resume Anglo-Egyptian Treaty Talks

LONDON, July 3. (Reuter): Lord Stansgate, leader of the British Mission which is conducting the British side of negotiations for revision of the Anglo-Egyptian treaty, is to return to Cairo as soon as possible.

Announcing this in the House of Commons to-day in reply to a question, Mr. Philip Noel Baker, Minister of Staff, said: "As a result of further discussions between the British Ambassador and the Egyptian Government, the British Government have invited the Secretary of State for Air to return to Cairo as soon as possible to resume negotiations which he has auspiciously begun".

NEW DEVELOPMENT IN BANK OF INDIA STRIKE

BOMBAY, July 3 (A.P.A.): A new development took place today in the Bank of India strike when two of the Directors called in employees from their other business firms to work in the Bank.

This, the strikers contend, is being done contrary to previous statements made by certain Directors that no hands would be called in to break the strike which enters its 8th day without any signs of a settlement in sight.

Members of the Council of Action, which has been formed by the striking employees numbering 700, had an informal talk with Mr. Mohammad Sulaiman Cassim Mitha, one of the Directors of the Bank, with a view to a settlement, but no agreement was arrived at.

BENARES, July 3 (A.P.I.): Four persons were killed and seven injured two seriously, in a clash which occurred between two parties of villages at Mirzamurad near Benares. The clash occurred over the plucking of mangoes from disputed trees. Police investigation is proceeding.

KHER INAUGURATES COMMERCE COLLEGE

"Real Education Must Generate Sense Of Patriotism"

SURAT, July 3 (UPI)—It is a pity that we are inclined to speak in English even though there is not a single Englishman present here. That practice should be avoided and the Rashtrabhasha should always be encouraged," said Mr. B. G. Kher, Prime Minister of Bombay, referring to a speech delivered in English at the ceremony of inauguration of a Commerce College performed by him this morning.

Speaking about the attitude of present-day students Mr. Kher remarked: "Every student studies simply to qualify him for earning his livelihood, but none with the ultimate object of serving his country. This mentality is the direct result of education imparted under a foreign rule. Real Education is that which generates a sense of patriotism."

He then referred to the last seven years' regime of the Advisers in the province "as a result whereof the work of the previous Congress Ministry including the introduction of Prohibition could not proceed further and black marketing and corruption is prevailing everywhere in the province." He hoped that the present Government would, with the co-operation of the people, root out all these evils and continue the work of the previous Ministry unhampered and embark upon other nation-building activities.

In the course of the conversation Mr. Kher said he hoped for the enforcement of total prohibition in the near future.

14 INJURED IN CITY RIOTS

Harijans & Caste Hindus Clash At Mazagaon

BOMBAY, Wednesday.

After a spell of nearly a month, there was renewed trouble between caste Hindus and Harijans at Tadwadi, Mazagaon, this morning.

It is said, that a group of miscreants indulged in throwing stones and other missiles at residents of the locality as a result of which fourteen persons were injured and removed to the J. J. Hospital.

Before the situation could aggravate, however, the Police appeared on the scene and restored order.

It is said that as a precautionary measure Curfew may be imposed in the area tonight.

The Police are taking no chances this time and adequate arrangements have been made to ensure that communal trouble does not raise its ugly head in the city. Incidents of this morning's type will be nipped in the bud. Suspicious nocturnal wanderers will come under the strict vigilance of the Police. At 6 a.m. to-day clashes occurred again, and as a result 13 injured persons were removed to the hospital.

The police restored order quickly and arrested more than 50 persons, who were either found throwing stones or suspected of having taken part in the disturbances.

The promulgation of the Curfew Order in Mazagaon-Tarwadi area—the scene of the friction between Caste Hindus and Scheduled Castes—has had a very salutary effect and the situation in the night is as quite peaceful. Police vigilance continues unabated.

Curfew Order

The Presidency Magistrate, Greater Bombay, under Section 144 (1) of the Code of Criminal Procedure by virtue of Government Notification, Home Department, No. S 50/2/1769 dated the 18th June 1946 in exercise of the powers so vested in me do hereby under Section 144 of the Code of Criminal Procedure direct the residents, frequenters, and visitors of the following places and areas in Bombay City to wit:

of the police and military for purposes of keeping them from mutual fight. The State could not suddenly disband them, but they could certainly reserve them for purposes of regulating the traffic, municipal sanitation and growing more food to combat the famine. He reminded them that so long as they depended upon the help of the police and military for maintaining Law and Order, real independence must remain mere idle talk. They joined him in prayers. The essence of prayer was reliance on God and utter fearlessness.

There was slight trouble in Jamalpur locality when a crowd tried to enter a locality of its rival community.

The principal local vernacular dailies, "Sandesh", "Samachar" and "Prabhat" failed to appear this morning.

It was officially disclosed to the Associated Press of India this morning that since the riots began three days ago there 30 persons have been killed and 218 wounded.

MERCURY LAMPS FOR MARINE DRIVE

BOMBAY, Wednesday

Marine Drive and Chowpatty, Bombay's most popular evening resorts, are proposed by the Bombay Municipality to be illuminated by mercury vapour lamps instead of the present gas lamps.

Marine Drive, the northern extremity of which is Chowpatty, extends to more than three miles right from Colaba the southernmost tip to the foot of the Malabar Hill.

Second Atom Bomb Will Be Exploded Under Water

U. S. Navy Secretary Warns Against Premature Conclusions

BIKINI, July 3 (A.P.A.): The second test of the Atom Bomb, tentatively scheduled within three or four weeks, may do far more damage than the first bomb, Secretary of the Navy, James Forrestal, indicated yesterday in an interview.

He expressed surprise at the small damage inflicted upon the heavier ships, but noted that such ships were difficult to sink unless they were damaged under water.

The second Atom Bomb will be exploded under water.

The "Lagoon" was reported continuing to react from the effects of the first bomb.

Brigadier General Roger Ramey, Air Force Commander of Operation Crossroads, related the continuing effect, and declared the bomb was a complete, unqualified success.

Bikini harbour is still reacting from the effects of the blast and radiation of the world's mightiest bomb, General Ramey declared. The destruction there will provide a valuable scientific clue for the future.

Both Forrestal and Vice-Admiral, W. H. P. Blandy, Commander of the Task Force, risked exposure to radioactivity to inspect the "Lagoon" and watch the Japanese cruiser 'Sakawa' sink. They boarded only one ship, the battleship "New York."

Forrestal warned against premature conclusions concerning the success of the test, but voiced a generality that there still will be navies in the future. Whether crewmen could have survived the test remained a question, but scientists expect to learn much by observing the effects of the rays upon surviving animals abroad the vessels.

Shock For U. S. Seekers Of Sensation

LONDON, July 3 (Reuter): Quoting a Tass message from New York, Moscow radio this morning stated that the result of the Atom test at Bikini came as a shock to the American public.

The radio said "the Atomic Bomb has disappointed millions of American people who for the past few months had read and heard fantastic anticipations concerning the Bikini test. For months, radio and newspapers had blared out that the bomb would destroy the 73 ships used for the test, cause an earthquake and set off a terrific tidal wave. But newspaper headlines, announcing that only two small ships were sunk, came as shock to the sensation seeking people of America."

Plea For Atomic Charter

NEW YORK, July 3 (Reuter): The United States Government in a memorandum to the Sub-Committee of the United Nations Organisation Atomic Energy Commission has proposed that any serious violations in international atomic energy, treaty should be referred to the Security Council.

The memorandum also suggests that the United Nations should draw up an "atomic charter" to govern the new Atomic development authority, which, it is urged, should have full control of the world's use of nuclear energy in future.

Mr. Bernard Baruch, United States delegate and M. Andrei Gromyko, Soviet representative, have both submitted to the U.N.O. plans for world control of Atomic energy.

The American plan urged that control of Atom Bomb and secrets of Atomic energy should be placed under a United Nations Development Society with full powers to punish violators of International Atomic Agreement. The Soviet plan subordinated Atomic control to the Security Council and proposed that the Great Powers should have veto rights over decision on Atomic energy.

BIKINI TEST WAS NOT TEST BUT "WARNING"

NEW YORK, July 3 (U.P.A.): The Daily Worker, organ of the Communist Party, today charged in an editorial that the atomic bomb test in Bikini was not a test, but a "warning to the rest of the world....."

The editorial said that "it was a test as to how much pressure could be imposed on the international negotiations now going on in Paris for compelling a surrender to the Administration's viewpoint, which is the view of the biggest trust and most reactionary militarists at this moment."

"It is understandable", the article continued, "why a Wall Street trust is out to seize markets, colonies and loot, and aiming at the smashup of trade unions in Europe and along with it democracy and socialist states should gloat over the possession of this deathdealing monster...."

The Bikini test had only added new proof to the fact that this weapon must be outlawed and all atomic warfare must be outlawed. That is the Soviet proposition, the article said.

The editorial concluded by saying that "so long as we brandish bombs in mankind's face, we cannot expect peace."

Atom Bomb In Russian Press

LONDON, July 2 (Reuter): Moscow radio tonight broadcast a despatch under a New York date line on "Operation Crossroads"—the atom bomb test at Bikini in the Pacific—for publication in tomorrow's Soviet provincial papers.

This is the first mention of the atom bomb test by the Russian press or radio.

"Izvestia" Criticises United States

LONDON, July 3 (Reuter): "Izvestia", the official organ of the Soviet Government, declared to-day in an article broadcast by Moscow radio that the Pacific Atom Bomb test had "fundamentally shaken faith in the sincerity of American talk of Atomic disarmament."

"Would it really have been necessary to carry out this complicated and costly experiment if the United States were earnestly prepared to renounce Atomic armament?" asks "Izvestia."

"The Atomic test bears witness not to preparations for destruction of the weapon, but of attempts at perfecting it."

Would Not Have Killed All Crew

ON BOARD THE UNITED STATES SHIP "APPALACHIAN", BIKINI, July 3 (Reuter): Dr. Karl Compton, Chairman of the Joint Task Force Evaluation Board, asked to-day whether he believed that the Bikini Atom Bomb would have killed all personnel normally to be found on a target ship, replied "no".

"I think there would have been serious damage to personnel in exposed conditions within half a mile of the blast", he said.

Replying to a question why so many of the animals on the ships had survived, Dr. Compton replied that the "death rays" released by the explosion have reaction which may be delayed up to several weeks.

Though unwilling to speculate on the effects of the bomb Dr. Compton said that it was obvious already that "the Atom Bomb did more damage to more ships than any one bomb in history." He believed that the second

HE SAW HITLER LYING DEAD?

NUREMBERG, July 3, (A.P.A.): Hitler's former chauffeur, Hans Kempka, testified today that he saw the Fuehrer lying dead in the Reichs Chancellory in Berlin on the afternoon of April 30, 1945, and also helped carry the body of Eva Braun outside, where it was cremated.

Kempa also testified before the War Crimes Tribunal that he saw Martin Bormann, Hitler's deputy, blasted by a shell from a Bazooka with such force that it was impossible that he was still alive.

Atom Bomb test—under-water explosion—which is planned to be held in three weeks, would cause greater damage.

Bikini Goats Get "Might Sick"

BIKINI, July 3 (U.P.A.): The famous goats of Bikini which withstood the Atomic blast on the quarterdeck of the battleship "Nevada" are still alive but they are mighty sick animals, radioes William Tyree, United Press of America staff correspondent.

So are the sheep which were there, too.

When the "Nevada" was boarded yesterday, it was found that the animals apparently were suffering from the deadly radio-active sickness and also possibly from the after effects of the intense heat which struck them when the bomb exploded.

ALL MICE DEAD

But the mice which were under the "Nevada's" stern turret were all found dead.

The more we see of the effects of the bomb, the more freakish it seems. For example, on the "Pennsylvania", all the animals survived but on the "Salt Lake City", only five of twenty lived.

Bikini atoll, itself, three and one-half miles from the centre of the explosion, is untouched. The palm trees are not even signed and five high towers containing recording instruments are untouched. No tidal waves occurred on the beaches and there is no evidence that the vegetation was affected.

AUGUST MOVEMENT AND PUNITIVE TAX

Bihar Govt. Decide To Return Collective Fines

PATNA, July 1. (A.P.I.): "The Government have decided to return the amount of punitive tax and collective fines realised from the people during the August Movement and after" stated Mr. Srikrishna Sinha, Premier, in the Bihar Assembly today; replying a question by Thakur Ramnandan Singh (Congress) he added, "the district officers have been asked to refund the punitive tax and collective fines within the current financial year. The refunds will be made personally by the subdivisional officers concerned who will visit the villages in their jurisdiction after giving due publicity to their programme and disburse the money personally in the presence of village leaders. Where the villages desire to utilise the amount of fines and taxes to be refunded for some common benefit to the village, they will be encouraged to do so, but as a rule the refunds will be made to persons from whom the fines and taxes were realised."

Questioned if the Government proposed to make any payment as compensation to such of the people who had suffered in 1942 on account of looting and burning of their houses the Premier said "Government will pass suitable orders in cases brought to their notice."

Mr. S. R. Tendolkar, Bar-at-Law, who has been elevated to the Bombay High Court Bench.

Will J. R. D. Tata Take A Hand

BY J. C. MAITRA

Will Mr. J. R. D. Tata, the President of the B.P.O.A., take a hand in the affairs of this Association? Matters are going from bad to worse and unless he makes an earnest and prompt effort to set things right, I am afraid there will be serious chaos in the athletic and cycling world of Bombay. Nearly two months ago some of the prominent athletes of Bombay formed an Athletic Association for this province in pursuant to the decentralisation policy of the I.O.A., and sought affiliation to the B.P.O.A. But the affiliation has been withheld for some reason or other, by his Committee. If the B.P.O.A., was really anxious to establish a separate body for athletics, it should not have waited for outsiders to take a lead in the matter. It should have taken necessary steps promptly. After the new Association has been formed, it is hardly sporting on the part of the Olympic authorities to come to loggerheads with it.

B.P.C.A. COMPLETELY IGNORED

But the position of the cycling body is still worse. The B.P.C.A. was established without any let or hindrance by the B.P.O.A. and it was actually affiliated to the parent body. But when the question of sending representatives to the World Cycling Championships arose, the B.P.C.A. was completely ignored. A body, called the N.C.F.I., which unfortunately for this country found recognition at the hands of the I.O.C. held a trial in Bombay and selected four cyclists, who are all from Bombay, to represent India at Zurich. Ordinarily we would have been proud of the fact that Bombay alone had the privilege of representing India at the International Meet. But how can we claim them to be the best in the country, when we know that they are not.

HOLE AND CORNER BUSINESS

It would be interesting to know if the B.P.O.A. had selected these individuals to represent Bombay at the "All-India trial." If they did what was the basis of their selection? And then, what about the B.P.C.A.? Does it mean that it has no 'locus standi' in the cycling world even after its affiliation to the B.P.O.A.?

We read in the papers that the Constitution of the Indian Cycling Federation which was formed at Bangalore in February last, was approved and its officer-bearers were elected at a meeting of the Regional representatives of the various Olympic bodies held at Delhi on the 25th ultimo. We should like to know if the B.P.O.A. had seen and approved the Constitution before it was finally accepted by the I.O.A. Sub-Committee. I am reliably informed that this was never placed before the B.P.O.A. Committee. As a matter of fact, one of the Joint Secretaries went to Delhi without any sanction from it. Evidently these things as many others, are being done behind its back.

STRANGE BUT TRUE

It is most surprising that the newly formed I.C.F. approved the selection of the four Indian representatives without any question, despite the fact that there was no proper trial.

It is also funny that Janki Dass has been elected Honorary Secretary for four years while the office-bearers will be elected annually.

MOVEMENT CONTROL IN QUARTER-FINAL

BOMBAY, Wednesday.

MOVEMENT CONTROL	3

By accounting for the Young Goans by three goals to nil, the Movement Control have now moved up to quarter-finals where they await the winners of the tie between the R. A. F. and St. Francis Goans which will be decided this evening.

Mr. Call scored the only goal netted during the first half of the match. Bloomer and Robinson scored the other two goals in the latter half.

But the one player in the winners' side who deserves special mention was their outside right Gardner who made a number of shots from various distances and most of them were exceptionally well directed and only some spectacular scoring by his opponents' custodian deprived him of a well-earned goal.

The match however was punctuated by some rough and often questionable tactics used by the visiting teams.

The Young Goans wasted a splendid chance of scoring when they failed to convert a penalty kick to their advantage.

THE TEAMS:

Movement Control:—Gunn; Stock and Osman; Robinson, Stone and Prentice; Gardner, Millsome, Bloomer, McCall and Goodchild.

Young Goans: Sunon; Walter and Casu; Anthony, Pinto and Alvares; Noronha, Mendoza and Assis.

To-day's match at 5-45 p.m.: R.A.F. vs. St. Francis Goans.

Indians All Out For 138 In First Innings

Yorkshire Make 52 For One Wicket At Close Of Play

(By Learie Constantine, Reuter's Special Commentator).

BRADFORD, July 3.—The Indians were unfortunate to be caught on a wet wicket against Yorkshire here today. When Pataudi won the toss, batting conditions were perfect, but heavy showers left the pitch unfavourable for run-getting.

One pointer gained from early play was that Hafeez is not, I think, the solution to the problem of an opening partner for Merchant. He will not leave off balls alone and must learn to curb his inclination to try all his strokes till he has played himself in. I noticed that after Hafeez missed three successive balls, Merchant went down the pitch to speak to him, yet India's Vice-Captain made a similar mistake and was caught by wicket-keeper Wood.

Yorkshire maintained a hostile attack. For over an hour, Modi and Pataudi stayed together but could not get a ball away and as soon as they opened out, both left.

To sum up, the weather tricked Pataudi. I was somewhat surprised to see Booth do damage as, although he turns the ball little he mainly relies on flight more than spin. It is a tribute to this League cricketer to be one of the first to go through most of the India side.

It is one of India's lowest totals of the tour, but I feel sure will do them no harm, and that they will have gained valuable experience. Bad light stopped play, with Yorkshire 86 runs behind, with nine wickets to fall.

India were all-out for 138 runs in the first innings of their match against Yorkshire.

Yorkshire had made 52 for 1 wicket in their first innings when play had to be abandoned owing to bad light.

Situation In South Africa Becoming Graver

Mahatma On Govt. Repression: Tribute To Sorabjee's Courage

POONA, July 3 (API)—Speaking at the prayer gathering Gandhiji said that he would not say that the situation in South Africa was deteriorating. But it was certainly becoming graver. The Government repression was becoming worse and worse. That was, however, part of the bargain. A Satyagrahi breaks the law and welcomes the penalty.

Referring to the arrest and conviction of Mr. Sorabjee to three months' rigorous imprisonment, he described how, as a young lad of sixteen, he had given proof of unusual courage in the course of the Satyagraha movement which he conducted in South Africa. A mounted policeman threatened to overrun the passive resisters. Sorabjee held the reins of the horse and told the policeman that he could not frighten the Satyagrahis into submission by such tactics. He was a worthy son of a worthy father, the late Mr. Rustomjee, who was known both for his bravery and munificence.

He paid a glowing tribute to Rev. Scott of Johannesburg whose Christian conscience had revolted against the inequality of the Segregation Law and the ill-treatment to which the passive resisters were being subjected.

As a protest against it Rev. Scott had decided to cast in his lot with the Satyagrahis and share with them the indignities to which they were being subjected. It was no small thing for a white man to identify himself with coloured people in South Africa. If the Satyagrahis remained free and non-violent till the end, all would be well with them. He had already told the audience their duty in this connection, that is a heartfelt prayer to God to give strength to the Satyagrahis and light to the Whites.

NO SUBMISSION TO WHITE SUPREMACY

MADRAS, July 3 (A. P. I.)—The United Nations Organisation should take a note of the treatment meted out to Indians in South Africa if it realises that it can secure the confidence of the peoples of the world only by standing for the same fundamental rights for all men irrespective of race or creed," declared Pandit Hridayanath Kunzru, President, Servants of India Society, interviewed by the Associated Press of India today on the recent developments in South Africa.

It cannot be expected that Asiatics and Africans will submit to White supremacy in order to preserve harmony. The Second World War would have been fought in vain if the Whites do not realise that Fascism based on distinctions of race and colour is quite as dangerous to the security of the world as political Fascism."

It is reported that some vernacular newspapers will be suspended by the police.

ARABS WILL RESIST TRUMAN 'DIKTAT'

Rehman Azzam Pasha, the Secretary-General of the Arab League, said here today that "the situation resulting from zionist terrorism threatens peace in the Middle East."

Azzam Pasha added: "It is impossible that Arabs will refrain from violence if they see Zionists in Palestine continue terrorism."

"The failure of the British Government to disarm the Zionists," he declared, "will be considered as an encouragement to Palestine Arabs to arm themselves to imitate the zionists, and, if not to dominate the country, at least to defend themselves."

IMMIGRANTS TO BE REDUCED

Another Arab source said Britain was expected to propose to America that she accept 30,000 Jewish immigrants. If America accepted, Britain would permit the immigration of an additional 30,000 Jews into Palestine. The rest of the proposed 100,000 Jewish immigrants would then be split among other countries, they said.

JEWISH QUESTION FOR U. N. O.

CAIRO, July 3 (U.P.A.): Arab circles to-day reiterated the Arabs' determination to oppose the immigration recommendations of the Palestine Report, recalling the Arab League's declaration that the Mid-Eastern States will use force to prevent the "furtherance of Zionist aims in Palestine."

A highly-placed Egyptian told the United Press of America that "we will submit the question to the Security Council."

Meanwhile, 10,000 wildly cheering people in New York heard Dr. Silver, Chairman of the American Zionist Emergency Council, quoting President Truman's statement that he is supporting the entry of 100,000 Jewish immigrants into Palestine and saying that "these Jews will begin moving within the next few days. The will and determination of the United States Government will succeed."

Death Sentences Commuted To Life Sentences

JERUSALEM, July 3, (Reuter): It was officially stated tonight that the death sentence passed by a military court in Jerusalem on June 3 on two Jewish terrorists found guilty of three of seven capital charges, was confirmed by Gen. Sir Evelyn Barker, General Officer Commanding, on July 2, but was commuted tonight to life imprisonment by the High Commissioner, Gen. Sir Alan Cunninghamm.

Toll Of Death Penalty For Arms

LONDON, July 3, (A.P.I.): Colonial Secretary George Hall disclosed in the Commons today that 142 Arabs and one Jew had been put to death for carrying arms in Palestine since November 11, 1937. Death sentences on 42 other Arabs and five Jews were not carried out, he added, carrying arms in Palestine was made a capital offence on November 11, 1937. The death penalty provision was removed on June 15, 1940, reinstated on March 24, 1944, and still is in effect.

TWO JEWISH INFORMANTS KIDNAPPED

HAIFA, July 3, (Reuter): Unknown armed Jews this morning abducted from their home in Haifa two Jews, reported to have been police informers who gave away the secret of the Mesheq Yagur arms dump.

The kidnapped men are both former soldiers of the Czechoslovak Army and formerly lived at Yagar.

TRUMAN DEPLORES ACTION IN PALESTINE

WASHINGTON, July 3. (A.P.A.): President Truman last night expressed regret at British military operations in Palestine and voiced a hope that the Jewish leaders arrested will be released.

He disclosed his views to a group of Jewish officials at the White House, and diplomatic authorities expected it would also be communicated to Britain's Prime Minister Clement Atlee.

D. F. Karaka:

Off My Chest

In India in the year 2000 A.D. there will be no drinks available because surely, by then, Congress will have introduced prohibition.

The Royal Western India Turf Club will surely have closed down because at the present rate of increase of the cost of the licence, the Turf Club will not be in a position to pay the amount required. The Club will certainly not be called ROYAL for obvious reasons; possibly it will not be called 'Western India,' because India will be divided into Hindustan and Pakistan. There will, very likely be no turf available, because the Course, being converted as a municipal park will be used for grazing cattle and sheep. So what'll be the use of having a Club which will neither be Royal, nor Western, nor Indian, nor Turf?

Without the RWITC there will be no racing obviously, and without racing no one is going to go to Mahaluxmi. Even the Treble Pool will get tired of being carried over.

There will be no cigarettes available in India, because, by the year 2000 A.D., it will be realised that if drink is bad for the kidneys, smoke is equally bad for the lungs, throat, chest, not to mention other inside parts of the body.

There will be no radio-programmes allowed in India except from All-India Radio, because an Indian Government must discourage the people from listening in to foreign programmes, even when, as now, the home broadcasts are appalling. So radio will be out.

That leaves cricket. Cricket will be out, because in the first place pentangulars won't be played, there being no communities, nor will the sport be encouraged because other "purely-Indian-games" like Hu Tu Tu will be played in the country and as no one will want to play Hu Tu Tu, there will be no sport.

That leaves dancing. Dancing in Western India depends on two important factors—the Taj and the CCI. The former will by that time have been bought over as an ashram for retired national workers out of national funds provided by generous donors like the Birlas and others who have always supported nationalist causes. The latter will have been wound up because the Cricket Club cannot, even by deed poll, change its name or function to the Hu Tu Tu Club of India.

By the year 2000 A.D. communal rioting as a form of outdoor sport will also have gone out of fashion. So that leaves only one thing for Indians to do. Let us sit at home and breed children to the greater glory of God. India will need them in the year 2000 A.D.

Russia Accepts 'Curzon Line'

Red Army Men Drive Stakes Along Poland's Eastern Frontier

BIALYSTOK, POLAND, July 2. A.P. A.): (Delayed): Russian soldiers drove stakes to-day along Poland's eastern frontier, indicating permanent establishment of the Curzon Line between the two countries as the counting of ballots in Sunday's referendum showed sharp disapproval of such a set-up.

Russian and Polish Commissioners proceeded to make minor rectifications of the line while the vote count in south-eastern Poland reflected solidarity with that in Bialystok Province in expressing resentment over the cession of Lwow and Wilno to the Russians under the present territorial demarcation.

LAMPS and STOVES have now clearly established their superiority over imported products. The guarantee slip is an assurance of perfection.

DECISION ON TRIESTE AGAIN DEFERRED

Bevin & Byrnes Urge That Question Be Ventilated At 21-Nation Conference

PARIS, July 3 (Reuter): The final Paris decision on international control for Trieste—debated by the "Big Four" Foreign Ministers nine and half months now—has again been deferred here and the discussion will be resumed today.

The British Foreign Secretary, Mr Ernest Bevin, and the United States Secretary of State, Mr. James Byrnes both insisted last night that the United Nations Organisation and not the "Big Four" should control the international regime.

With all four ministers agreed on the principle of internationalisation, the French Foreign Minister, M Georges Bidault, again saved the situation by proposing a last minute amendment which was accepted as his for discussion today. A new compromise allowing for all views expressed it proposed that Trieste should be administered "in accordance with a statute proposed by the Four Powers (Molotov's view) for examination by the peace conference (Byrnes' demand) and by UNO (Bevin's view)."

Objecting to M. Vyachesleve Molotov's earlier proposal to place the four great powers in charge of the Trieste International Enclave, Mr. Byrnes said the "Big Four" had no mandate from UNO to assume this responsibility.

Mr. Bevin and Mr. Byrnes urged that the whole question be ventilated at the 21-Nation Conference. Both stressed that their agreement in principle to the internationalisation of Trieste was solely for the sake of compromise—in justice the area should go to Italy.

PROSPECTS OF MORE TROUBLE IN TRIESTE

TRIESTE, July 3 (AP.A.): Comparative calm returned to Trieste today after two days of confused rioting which left two dead and approximately 60 wounded—several seriously.

A throng of 10,000 workers followed to the grave the body of Atilio Giorgiutto, prominent Trade Unionist, who was fatally shot on Sunday, but scattered fistcuffs on the fringes of the crowd were the only trouble. British and American troops put a prompt stop to this.

However, the city continued tense and, with Slav-dominated unions continuing their general strike into today, Allied Military Government officers agreed there were prospects of more trouble.

EGYPTIAN SEAMAN SENTENCED

Mahomed Fakir Ahmed, an Egyptian seaman was sentenced by Mr. Oscar Brown, Chief Presidency Magistrate to one month's rigorous imprisonment for illicit possession of opium.

The accused were arrested by the Preventive section of the Customs Department.

Mr. R. Rajan, Preventive Officer, was complimented by the Magistrate for ably conducting the prosecution.

PROPERTY WORTH RS. 68,000 LOOTED

"This is not a case of theft by mistake, or that the accused had fallen prey to circumstances, or that he had nothing to maintain upon" observed Mr. J. M. Barrot, Presidency Magistrate, Mazagaon Court, in the course of the judgment in the case in which five persons (1) Shripat Mahadev Sawant, Sudam Ganpat, Anand Dikshit Narkar, Dhondu and, Sakharam Ganoo, were charged with looting the shop of Vinayak Shankar & Co., at Girgaum Road on the night of February 22 last.

The shop was alleged to have been broken open by the accused and property valued at Rs. 68,000 was looted.

The Magistrate observed that those were the times when the lives of people were at stake and such people take undue advantage of the circumstances.

"Taking into consideration the time and the way in which the offences were committed, it is but justice that common people should know their responsibilities and help their fellow-men in such troublous times."

The Magistrate sentenced 1, 3 and the 4th accused to 9 months, 1 year and 6 months respectively. He discharged 2nd and 5th accused.

Alleged Attempt To Shoot Father

BOMBAY, Wednesday.

How thirty-seven-year old Krishnarao Kangutkar, residing on the first floor of Kangutkar Building, Colaba aimed a double barrelled gun at his father and brother in a fit of fury and fired a shot that providentially missed its target, was related this morning at the Esplanade Court before Mr. O. Brown, Chief Presidency Magistrate.

It was stated that Krishnarao, who was on very bad terms with his father and brother owing to some family dispute, picked a quarrel with them when a Municipal Inspector called to inspect a leakage on the floor of his flat about which a tenant on the ground floor had complained.

When the Inspector left, the accused, it was alleged, went into his room and brought a double-barrelled gun. Notwithstanding the terrified screams of his father and brother, Krishnarao is reported to have directed the gun at them and fired a shot. Missing aim, the bullet pierced the wood-work on the passage door and did some damage. Before the accused could do further mischief, a big crowd collected on the street below, apparently unnerving the accused.

Pre-Historic Cultural Relics Unearthed

FINDS SPEAK OF 5,000-YEAR OLD CIVILISATION

Sensational Archaeological Discoveries In Central India

BOMBAY, July 2, (A.P.I.): Prehistoric archaeological finds, believed to be of greater antiquity than those of Mohenjodaro and Harappa, have been discovered in the Narbada valley in Gujrat and Central India as the result of a survey conducted by the State authorities of Rajpipla.

Revealing this to an Associated Press of India correspondent here today Mr. R. G. Gyani, Curator of the Prince of Wales Musuem, said that the antiquity of these finds goes as far back as approximately 5,000 years.

During the course of the work, Palaeolithic (Old Stone Age) culture relics were found at a number of places on the Narbada in Gujrat from the Pliestocene (Ice Age) beds of the river.

MAHISMATI DISCOVERED

The most outstanding discovery made during this survey is bringing to light an urban civilisation of prehistoric times (distinct from the Indus Valley civilisation of Mohenjodaro and Harappa) the remains of which have been found in large numbers on the banks of the Narbada.

The relics of an entire city of the prehistoric period were discovered at Maheswar in Indore State which Mr. Gyani explained was Ancient Mahismati, the Capital of the Narbada Kingdom according to the 'Puranas'.

This city occupies an area of about a mile on the right bank of the Narbada river. This as well as the other prehistoric sites discovered contain antiquities such as stone art crafts, pottery, terra-cotta objects, beads and brick-structures on the surface of the mounds throughout, which shows that these sites were deserted during prehistoric times and were never re-occupied.

A number of early historic sites yielding punch-marked coins and other relics have also been found during the survey. They range from stone inscriptions, copper plates and numismatic remains, being the vestiges of a culture between the early centuries of the Christian era down to the Medieval period. These reveal the existence of some hitherto unknown dynasties.

The survey which has yielded these remarkable discoveries, dates back to three years ago, when the Rajpipla State authorities started an archaeological department and appointed Mr. A. V. Pandya as the State Archaeologist. His services were lent to the State by the Archaeological Survey of India. The Survey was also aided by the States of Indore, Chhota-Udepur, Dhar, Ali Rajpur, Barwani, Jambughoda, Mathwar and Dahi.

A detailed report incorporated the results of these subterranean explorations is now under preparation and is likely to shed new light on the archaeology and history of Western and Central India.

SILVER RECOVERS—UNDER PERSISTENT SHORT COVERING

Produce Market Quiet With Scattered Liquidation

Bombay, July 3

The recent heavy short covering induced equally heavy long liquidation in the local cotton market which ruled quietly steady to-day with a moderate business. The market is awaiting new move in American markets after the abolition of the office of Price Administration and it is said that the Senate Committee is planning new form of control acceptable to all parties.

The statistical position of Indian cotton is strong and indications favour higher prices.

The market opened at Rs. 474 for September delivery and under scattered selling declined at Rs. 473/8. At this level there was moderate short covering and some buying which improved September contract at Rs. 474/8 while July was quoted at Rs. 465/8.

GOLD AND SILVER

Bombay, July 3

The Bullion market opened weak to-day on utter absence of any support and loss of confidence. It appears that the recent heavy liquidation has improved the technical position of the market and temporary upward reaction seems to be developing on short covering and some replacement buying by sold-out bulls. However the general feeling remains bearish but we do not favour sales at present levels.

Silver market opened to-day at Rs. 165 and improved at Rs. 166/4 on short covering and moderate buying. Gold opened at Rs. 102/2 and rallied at Rs. 102/10. Sovereigns were quoted at Rs. 67/12. The market was steady.

American Markets Quiet Over O. P. A. Confusion

Cotton Prices Declare On Long Liquidation

NEW YORK, July 2, (Reuter): Wall Street opened steady but quiet. The market displayed mixed tendencies in fairly quiet trading during the morning with movements generally ranging upto point or so on either side of Monday's closing. The initial buying flush on the suspension of the office of price administration has now worn off in view of the waiting policy adopted by many values of industry as well as confusion over the course the administration will pursue in any attempt to revive O.P.A. powers. Assorted food stocks, packing shares metals and oils featured on the higher side while light profittaking restrained many leaders, particularly rails, steels, and motors. Should no news open to adverse interpretation materialise, brokers feel upward trend could be resumed later this week as buyers seek further hedges against inflation. The market continued to mill about during the afternoon in an unsuccessful effort to establish some sort of trend. Numerous leaders were narrow and irregularly lower with rails under particular pressure as buying emphasis shifted to department stores and specialities. The final hour saw losses of fractions to two points predominating in quiet trading. Wetstocks were propped by the firmness of national distillers which advanced nearly three points on a light turnover to a new high of 91-3/8 Caution was apparent in view of support for recreating the O.P.A. Along lines acceptable to President Truman which is now reported to be developing under the Senate Committee. The market closed irregular.

COTTON DECLINES

Cotton opened irregular lower to unchanged and moved quietly for a time but then eased on liquidation of July on the circulation of notices for 1900 bales and increased profittaking and hedging which found offtake disappointing. This is believed to reflect confused ideas over the price control outlook but buyers generally are more cautious in view of recent sustained upswing and the fact that the market has had no actual corrective movement. Rallies proved feeble and shortlived, while profittaking persisted though without any real aggression and trading was very orderly. The further revisions of margin requirements are expected eventually to assist trading operations. The market continued virtually unsupported and prices continued to decline upto noon when prices ruled easy, 31 to 27 lower. Rallies during the afternoon remained feeble and always attracted offerings with still little support to counter the reactionary trend as uncertainties in connexion with price control remained the chief market influence. Even weather complaints were ignored as the bearish feeling persisted. Though afternoon losses were not so pronounced as those of the morning the fact that support did not appear at lower levels possibly disappointed bulls while the market still acted orderly. The market closed barely steady 37 to 48 lower. Sales are estimated at 180,000 bales.

CHICAGO GRAINS

Deferred oats deliveries sagged reflecting possible reestablishment of price controls, prospects for abundant supplies later this season as well as sharply increased livestock marketing which will result in smaller feed requirements. Maize and barley advanced five cents early attributed to the strength of cash markets. However reports that producers were offering more freely at current levels subsequently chilled buying enthusiasm.

Private Foreign Investment

League of Nations Publication 1946. II. A. 1 Pages: 44. Prices. dol. 0.50 paper covers. Re. 1/8.

The need of capital has never been more keenly felt over wide areas of the world than it is to-day, but the obstacles to capital export and to the acceptance of foreign capital have seldom, if ever, been greater. In these circumstances the renewal of private foreign investment is likely to be a slow process, but it may be expedited in so far as a better understanding of the common interests of capital exporting and capital importing countries can be achieved. Aware of this community of interests, an expert committee of the League of Nations has for some time devoted itself to task of formulating the essential principles which should guide in like manner the conduct of those who invest abroad and of those who seek to obtain foreign capital. This committee, whose members have been drawn both from capital exporting and from capital importing countries in the Americas, in Europe and in Asia, has now published its recommendations in a timely report entitled "Conditions of Private Foreign Investment."

An introductory survey emphasizing the economic significance of private foreign investment is followed by a discussion of the conditions which have to be fulfilled in order to create a favourable climate for private investment in capital-poor countries. Principles for the treatment of foreign investors are formulated with reference to this point and recommendations are made regarding the criteria which would govern the conduct of investors in their own interest, and in that of the capital receiving countries.

Against this background the report examines first the principal aspects of fixed-interest investment and secondly, in greater detail, the various questions that relate more particularly to equity and direct investment. Thirdly, special consideration is given to domestic tax problems and international tax relations. The report is concluded by a summary restating in abridged form the main findings of the committee.

INDIA HELPED CEYLON IN BEST MANNER IT COULD

Aney Repudiates Allegation That 'Not A Grain Of Rice' Was Dispatched

COLOMBO, July 2 (API): A long statement setting out in detail the various occasions on which India helped Ceylon with supplies of foodstuffs has been issued by Mr. M. S. Aney, Government of India's representative in Ceylon. The statement has been issued in view of the recent local press reports as well as allegations by certain speakers from public platforms that "not a grain of rice" had been arriving from India to Ceylon.

Recently Mr. Ananda Tissa de Alwis, Publicity Officer of the Post-War Reconstruction Committee, Board of Minister, in a broadcast over the Colombo Radio purporting to refute "misrepresentations" about Ceylon was reported to have stated that not a grain of rice had been coming into the island from India in recent years. It is also reported that at the Kalutar Co-operative Conference last week Mr. D. S. Senanayake, Leader of the State Council, told the audience that India had not sent a grain of rice to Ceylon and Ceylon obtained all her foodstuffs through the good offices of England.

Mr. Aney in a statement says that the contexts wherein these statements are reported to have been made are such as to suggest that India had been reluctant in recognising and meeting the needs of Ceylon in the matter of foodstuffs.

Giving details of supplies of foodstuffs from India, Mr. Aney says that after the fall of Burma, Ceylon turned to India for foodstuffs particularly rice to bridge the gap in her import requirements. This was a time when a large deficit in the supply of foodstuffs in India also became apparent. The famine in Bengal which took its toll in loss of life evoked as much sympathy in Ceylon as in India. Yet during the year India dispatched to Ceylon rice, wheat and pulses.

Mr. Aney said, that India remained and remains practically the main supplier to Ceylon from abroad of sheep and goats for mutton, curry-stuffs, eggs, dried fish, etc. Mr. Aney points out that it is necessary to view all these exports against the background of the situation in India during 1943, 1944, 1945, the beginning of 1946.

Mr. Aney said to-day the people of India would be more than glad for a mere loan of 2,000,000 tons of food stuffs to be replaced in 1948 when our granaries are full. The effect of an import of food is to be judged not by considering whether it is loan, gift or sale but from the benefits derived from its immediate arrival.

All requests for such loans or sales of food have to pass through Washington and in cases of empire countries through London also. In June 1946, the Ceylon Commissioner for Food Supplies in Delhi was reported in Ceylon as having stated that the Government of India had always come to Ceylon's assistance in times of extreme necessity and would help again.

Mr. Aney concluded "There exist several genuine economic stresses between India and Ceylon which have in the recent past created some estrangement between these two neighbouring peoples united by common ties. These differences can be adjusted and will disappear in the course of a few years. It would be a pity to add to the difficulties in the way of any such understanding and adjustment by misapprehension in Ceylon of the attitude of India towards food requirements of the peoples of Ceylon."

FOOD PACKAGES FOR INDIA

New York Move For Relief Of Famine-Stricken

NEW DELHI, July 3, (A.P.I.): A "Food for India" campaign has been launched by the International Headquarters of the Caravan of the East and West, New York, it is learned here. It is proposed to send packages of rice, corn, flour and vitamins to the famine sticken areas of India for free distribution. The India Supply Mission in Washington is understood to have agreed to ship these food parcels free of transportation charges.

According to a message received in New Delhi orders have already been placed for the shipment of 3,000 pounds soya bean superfine flour, and about 600 pounds of dried milk and oatmeal.

The food parcels reching India will be distributed by the Caravan of India, in places where the famine is considered most acute.

Mrs. L. S. Chanler, President of the Campaign Committee, in an appeal to the American public, writes. "India is now a focal point of the world's food crisis. War has lowered India's food output for the last five years, and draught in agricultural regions has now made food needs desperate. The country is not receiving food shipments through U.N.R.R.A. If rationing breaks down in India for lack of food, there will be unprecedented mass starvation. It is our obligation as Americans and as human beings to do what we can."

Mr. G. Naqsband, director of the Caravan of India, announces that steps are being taken to launch a similar campaign in India to collect foodstuffs for distribution in famine-stricken areas

LARGE STOCKS OF RICE AVAILABLE IN BURMA

MADRAS, July 1 (A.P.I.): The Southern India Chamber of Commerce in a telegram to the Private Secretary to H. E. the Viceroy and the Hon. Sir Robert Hutchings, Food Member, urges the Government of India to make elaborate arrangements in collaboration with the Burma Government officials to arrange for the purchase of rice or paddy at the various internal centres of Burma. It also asked to arrange for the milling of paddy as far as possible and export to India whether as rice or paddy in view of the acute food situation.

The telegram states that the Chamber understands from persons who have come during the last four weeks from several paddy growing areas of Burma that large quantities, estimated about one to one and half million tons in rice of old stock of unmilled paddy are still available in the interior places and have not reached the port owing to lack of river and rail transport. The quality of rice and paddy are already deteriorating and if not issued immediately they will further deteriorate and will become ciseless.

When Pethick-Lawrence Stumped Jinnah

Question About League Party's Show In Lahore Corporation

(From Our Correspondent)

LAHORE, July 3.

"Will you rule India like this Mr. Jinnah if Pakistan is established?" This question was put to the League leader by Lord Pethick-Lawrence, Secretary of State for India during the course of joint interview between the Congress, the League and the Mission at New Delhi. The Secretary of State was informed of the full details about elections of Lahore Corporation wherein the various Sub-Committees were elected by the casting vote of the Muslim League Mayor without including in the Sub-Committees any non-Muslim. There was no reply to justify the action of the Punjab Muslim Leaguers and Mr. Jinnah had to say that he would make enquiries into the matter.

After this some attempts were made to approach the non-Muslims to include their representatives in various Sub-Committees but it was not acceptable to them because they demanded re-election of the Sub-Committee. This revelation was made during course of private talk by one who happened to be member of joint meeting.
